

Imagining a Better Future for Public Higher Education

A forum for students, staff, faculty and the community

With a new governor being elected in November and the Fair Share Amendment on the ballot (Question 1), we have a unique opportunity to address systemic inequities in our public higher education system.

Hear from the campus community and share your vision for the future of our public colleges and universities as we discuss two topics:

- ◆ The support our students deserve
- ◆ Fair wages and working conditions for all staff and faculty

Thursday, September 22nd
